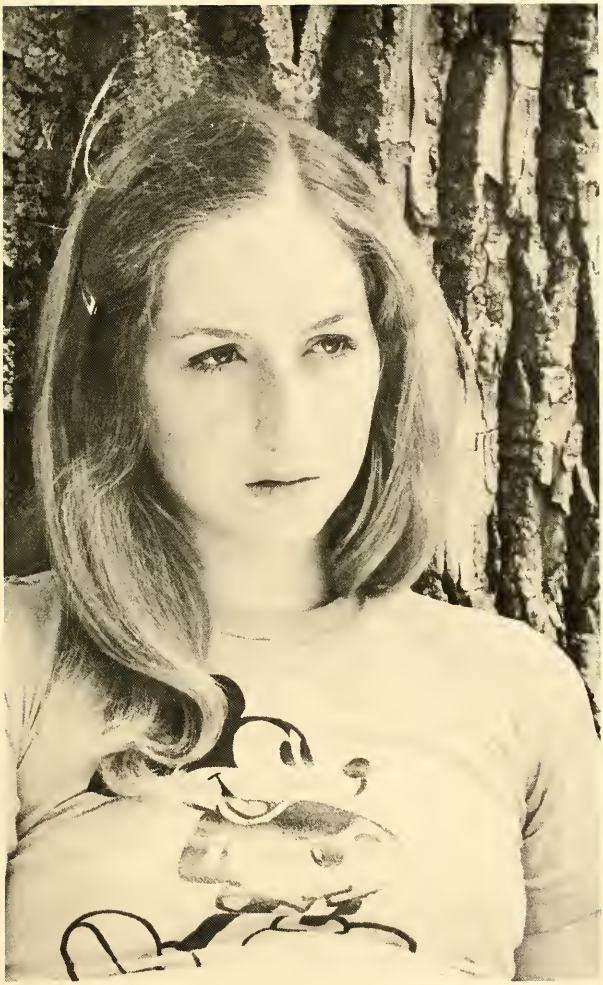
Sensitivity



Have you ever had a dream of youth,
Running and skipping, laughing
At the world?
I had a dream today
About the times gone by
When I was young and gay.
Days with no time to cry.

Barefoot in thd dawn's grass.
Running fast in a maze
Filled to the brim with sass.
Going fast in a happy daze.

Everyday is something new.
Living a life, never bored
Till someone says you grew
And your youth is never more.

Michael J. Lyons

REFLECTIONS

Crippled Inside- John Lennon

You can shine your shoes and wear a suit
You can comb your hair and look quite cute
You can hide your face behind a smile
One thing you can't hide
Is when you're crippled inside.

You can wear a mask and paint your face
You can call yourself the human race
You can wear a collar and a tie
One thing you can't hide
Is when you're crippled inside

Well now you know that your cat has nine lives, babe
Nine lives to itself
But you only got one
And a dog's life ain't fun
Mamma take a look outside

You can go to church and sing a hymn
Judge me by the colour of my skin
You can live a lie until you die
One thing you can't hide
Is when you're crippled inside

Look at me
I'm blending into the wall
And I wonder if I'm really here at all.
Time goes by
So do I
But no one blinks an eye

Loneliness comes and stayes
Torturing nights and days
Look at me
I'm fading into the floor
And I wonder if I'm living anymore.

I know things just can't go on for all eternity
But thoughts and deeds will never die

And though the heart is gone the memory will linger on.

Time is on my side

'Cause your happiness ia all I want
For you to find
Peace, your peace of mind

No one around you, will carry the blame for you
No one around you, will love you to day and throw it all away tomorrow

Don't shut the door, shut the door,
door of my life
Don't shut me out, shut me out,
out of your mind
You can say what's in your heart
It's the things that you're hidin that bother me
And it's keeping us apart

Seeing the war point-blank, he changed

Isn't it a pity, Isn't it a shame
How we break each other's hearts, and cause each other pain
How we take each other's love, without thinking anymore
Forgetting to give back
Isn't it a pity.

Somethings take so long, but how do I explain?
When not too many people can see we're all the same
And because of all their tears,
Their eyes can't hope to see
The beauty that surrounds them-oh isn't it a pity.

The love you are blessed with
This world's waiting for
So let out your heart please, please
From behind that locked door.

Sophomore Ego Week

I know I am a Freshman
Unworthy here to stand.
So I shall kneel O mighty one
And gladly kiss your hand.

O Sweet Sophomore
I shall follow your footsteps
cheerfully,
For I know that you are far wiser than I could ever be.

Another sophomore ego building technique.

Work Day

Work Day is an annual event sponsored by the Student Union, when students do jobs to earn money for a project. This year the proceeds were used for lighting tennis courts and a partial wall on one side of the courts to practice on.

The Pacific Repertory Company, founded in 1966 for the purpose of bringing significant drama to people in all areas of the United States presented Henrik Ibsen's classic "Hedda Gabler." Because of the excellent quality of the Pacific Repertory Company's presentations, professors requested that the productions be made available to their colleges. Thus, in addition to their scheduled appearances in churches and schools, the company established an entirely new division to perform exclusively at colleges and universities.

Dr. Philip M. Crane, United States Congressman from Illinois has taught at Indiana University and Bradley University and in 1967 became Director of Schools for Westminster Academy, Northbrook, Illinois. In November, 1961, he was elected to the fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Donald Rumsfeld.

The Opera, "Amahl and the Night Visitors" was written by Gian Menotti. The story tells of a lame boy who lives with his mother. On a particular night three wisemen come to stay. They are on their way to see Baby Jesus. As they start to leave, Amahl decides he wants to go with them. Upon leaving, Amahl becomes well, but wants to go anyway to give Baby Jesus his crutch.

With an active repertoire of over twenty ballets, the Cincinnati Ballet Company has come to hold an important position in the cultural life of the city of Cincinnati as a permanent resident repertory ballet company. The dancers of the company, selected annually through open auditions, are intensively trained in the techniques of ballet.
